

PROSPECTIVE STUDENTS

CURRENT STUDENTS & PARENTS

ALUMNI

FACULTY & STAFF

MY UALBANY

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

NEWS

UALBANY PRESIDENT

OUTREACH

SUPPORT UALBANY

EMPLOYMENT

UAlbany President

In Step with President Hall August 2005

Albany Symphony Board Briefing

UALBANY PRESIDENT

ASK THE PRESIDENT

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

COMMENTARY & SPEECHES

PRESIDENT'S BIOGRAPHY

PRESIDENTIAL ARCHIVES

Meeting Between President Hall and Chinese Business, Education Leaders

From left, David Lung, head of the architecture program at Hong Kong University; Jeanette Altarriba, associate dean for academic affairs in the College of Arts & Sciences; and Peter Bloniarz, dean of Information Science and associate provost of Informatics.

Lung with Hall at the University Residence.

Bloniarz; Tracey Brooks, a staffer to Sen. Hillary Clinton; and K.Y. Chow, president of G.M. Printing in New York City.

Raymond Xu, a University at Albany School of Business alumnus, and president of the New York Asian Business Development Council, with Phyllis Hall.

August 22, 2005 – President Kermit L. Hall met with business and education leaders to discuss higher education and corporate partnerships between China and the U.S.